InfoSocial
a graduate student research conference @ northwestern

2018 Conference Schedule

Friday March 9th and Saturday March 10th 2018

Friday Conference Location: Frances Searle Building, 2240 Campus Drive, Evanston, IL 60208

Saturday Conference Location: Scott Hall, 601 University Pl, Evanston, IL 60201

Friday, March 9th Event Schedule

Time	Event	Notes	Location
01:00 PM	Registration Opens	--	Frances Searle Building, Lobby (building address listed above)
01:30 PM	Writing Workshops	Qualitative Workshop run by Professor Larissa Buchholz, Northwestern University Quantitative/Qualitative Workshop run by Professor Darren Gergle, Northwestern University Note: For submitted abstract authors only	Qualitative Workshop: Frances Searle Building 2-370 Quantitative/Qualitative Workshop: Frances Searle Building 2-378
03:00 PM	Networking Event	Coffee & Icebreaker activities. All registered InfoSocial attendees invited to attend.	Frances Searle Building, 2nd Floor Atrium
04:00 PM	Social Implications of Technology Panel	A panel featuring Northwestern scholars discussing media research and its ethical/societal implications. Prof. Aymar Christian, Dr. Jason Wilson, and Prof. Nicholas Diakopoulos All registered InfoSocial attendees invited to attend.	Frances Searle Building 2-107
05:00 PM	Registration Closes	--	Frances Searle Building, Lobby
06:00 PM	Group Dinner @ Mt. Everest Restaurant	Nepalese Restaurant. All registered InfoSocial attendees invited to attend.	630 Church St, Evanston, IL 60201

Saturday, March 10th Event Schedule

Time	Event	Notes	Location
08:00 AM	Breakfast & Saturday Registration Opens	--	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
08:30 AM	Introductory Plenary	--	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
09:00 AM	Keynote Speaker	Lana Yarosh, Professor of Computer Science & Engineering at the University of Minnesota	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
10:00 AM	Session 1: Social Media Discussant: Professor Jeremy Birnholtz, Northwestern University	(1) From indifferent to aware: the importance of identifying upsetting news on social media and changing how people receive it. Presenter: Anthony T. Pinter, University of Colorado Boulder (2) Content Analysis of Concussion Tweets in Professional American Football Presenter: Alicia Boyd, DePaul University (3) Parents and children in virtual showcases: exploring Sharenting with a sample of Italian mothers Presenter: Davide Cino, University of Milano Bicocca, Italy	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
11:00 AM	Session 2: Politics & Law Discussant: Professor Harsh Taneja, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign	(1) "Peeling the Onion": A Literature Review on Usability of TOR Presenter: Sanchari Das, Indiana University Bloomington (2) How to regulate advanced robots and how to legally evaluate their actions and potential harms that can derive by their actions Presenter: Tjaša Zapušek, University of Copenhagen, Denmark (3) Democracy and Digital Technology: Internet Governance and Social In/exclusion in Rio de Janeiro Presenter: Jeffrey Omari, UC Santa Cruz/American Bar Foundation	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor

12:00 PM	Lunch	Boxed lunches will be provided	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
1:00 PM	Session 3: Communication Discussant: Professor James Schwoch, Northwestern University	(1) A Play-by-Play Account of Esports Casting and its Colorful Implications for Game Designers Presenter: Lucas D Kempe-Cook, Indiana University (2) Multicommunication during the Carnatic (Indian Classical Music) Concert Presenter: Madhavi Reddi, Georgetown University (3) Social Information Practices of New International Students during Transition to a Host Country Presenter: Chi Young Oh, University of Maryland, College Park	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
2:00 PM	Session 4: Health Discussant: Professor Courtney Scherr, Northwestern University	(1) Finding Answers Across Time: Information needs & practices of chronic kidney disease patients Presenter: Eleanor R. Burgess, Northwestern University (2) The Suitability of the Asynchronous Remote Communities (ARC) Method for Studying Stigmatized Populations Presenter: Juan F. Maestre, Indiana University Bloomington (3) Inmate Narratives: Analysis of The Last Words of Death-Row Offenders Presenter: Anish Balasubramanian, University of Maryland, College Park	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
3:00 PM	Coffee Break	--	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
3:30 PM	Session 5: Design Discussant: Dr. Robin Brewer, Presidential Postdoctoral Fellow at University of	(1) Designing for Postal Mail Users in Electronic Mail Services Presenter: Rebecca C. Kielty, Georgetown University	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor

	Michigan School of Information	(2) Collaborative Programming: Designing to Support Collaboration in Scratch Presenter: Joey Huang, Indiana University Bloomington (3) Sex, Lies and Imitation Games: The Ethical Limitations of an Artificially Intelligent Girlfriend Presenter: Ellen Kaufman, Georgetown University
4:30 PM	Session 6: Participation Discussant: Dr. Jason Wilson, Teaching Postdoctoral Fellow, Northwestern University	(1) Working in the Shadows: A Cross-Case Analysis of Anonymous Contributions in Online Citizen Science Communities Presenter: Corey Jackson, Syracuse University (2) A Criteria-Based Approach to Feedback in Social Q&A Presenter: John Frens, University of Washington (3) Inclusion of Underserved Residents in City Technology Planning Presenter: Jessa Dickinson, DePaul University	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
5:30 PM	Closing Remarks	--	Scott Hall, Guild Lounge, 2nd Floor
6:30 PM	Group Dinner @ Prairie Moon	American Restaurant. All registered InfoSocial attendees invited to attend.	1502 Sherman Ave, Evanston, IL 60201